

THE DEMAND ON CHILE.

Text of the Instructions Sent to Minister Egan.

PERFECT CONSISTENCY OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT WITH ITS POSITION IN THE NEW ORLEANS LYNCHING AFFAIR—DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE TWO CASES—HOSTILITY OF THE JUNTA REPRESENTATIVES.

The instructions of the State Department to Minister Egan were made public last night. The dispatch, which was sent on the 23d, says:

Immediately upon receipt of information of the assaults made on the 16th instant, in the streets of Valparaiso upon a number of American sailors belonging to the United States man-of-war Baltimore, now in that harbor, the commander of that vessel, Capt. W. S. Schley, was directed to cause an immediate and thorough inquiry to be made into the origin and incidents of that tragic affair, and to communicate the results simultaneously to this government and to you. Your report, under date of yesterday, has just been transmitted to this department by the Secretary of the Navy, who advises me that a copy of the report was forwarded to you.

You will observe that the board of officers selected by Capt. Schley to investigate this affair report that our sailors were unarmed and gave no provocation; that the assaults upon them were of a gross and unprovoked nature, and we must conclude, animated in their bloody work by hostility to these men as sailors of the United States. You will also notice that the character of some of the wounds indicate that the public enemy, or the agents of whom, struck at the weak, and will also observe that other American sailors were without any apparent fault arrested and some time held by the authorities.

The friendly efforts of a few of the public officers, however, to a few men furnished the only redeeming incident of this affair. This cruel work, so injurious to the United States, took place on the 16th instant, and yet no expression of regret or of purpose to make amends for it, or to seek justice for the violation of proper proceedings for the punishment of the guilty parties, has been, so far as I am advised, offered to this government.

You will at once bring to the attention of the government the facts of the action taken by Capt. Schley, and will inquire whether there are any qualifying facts in the possession of that government, or any explanation to be offered of an event that has very deeply pained the people of the United States, and has resulted in the resulting death of one of our sailors and the pitiless wounding of others, but even more as an apparent expression of unfriendliness toward this government which might put in peril the maintenance of our relations with Chile. If the facts are as reported by Capt. Schley, this government cannot doubt that the government of Chile will offer prompt and full reparation. You will furnish the foreign office a full paraphrase of this dispatch and report promptly to this government.

These instructions are regarded as extremely temperate in tone and are entirely consistent with the attitude taken by this government in the case of the lynching of Italians in New Orleans, for which the Italian government demanded satisfaction.

THE CASES NOT ANALOGOUS.

The cases are not considered analogous, but what is demanded of Chile is no more than what this country was free to extend to the Italian government. The New Orleans lynching, it is claimed, was an act of vengeance upon persons for a crime they were individually charged with committing. The nationality of the victims did not enter into the question, nor, possibly all the victims, were American citizens.

In the case of the killing of the sailors of the Baltimore in Valparaiso investigation appears to have been directed against the Italian government, and the assault personally for some offense supposed to have been committed by them, but that the attack was made upon the uniform they wore, and was a demonstration of hostility against the United States.

There is no analogy between the two cases between the two cases the State Department maintains perfect consistency with the position taken in the Italian case. The punishment of the offenders is not demanded, but suggests an expression of regret or of purpose to make amends for a crime they were individually charged with committing, with a view to the institution of proper proceedings for the punishment of the guilty parties." An explanation is asked and the belief expressed that if the facts are as they appear the Chilean government will offer prompt and full reparation.

NOT TO BE MISUNDERSTOOD.

This is extremely temperate it is regarded as fully vigorous enough not to be misunderstood. The opportunity is opened for the Chilean government to disclaim any hostile feeling toward the United States and to make good their disclaimer by this action, but if they fail to do this there will be sufficient in the statement that the affair puts to peril the maintenance of amicable relations between the two countries.

The attitude of the representatives of the junta in this city, especially of Mr. Julio Fornet, the minister of foreign affairs, is the best evidence to give warrant for the assumption that the assault was directed against the sailors personally for some offense supposed to have been committed by them, but that the attack was made upon the uniform they wore, and was a demonstration of hostility against the United States.

The representations of the junta have been in Washington since some time before the fall of Balmaceda, but they have not received credence since the establishment of the junta.

SENATOR MONT AND SECRETARY BLAINE.

Yesterday Senator Mont, who has been notified by cable of his appointment as minister to this country, called on Mr. Blaine in company with the Mexican minister. Mr. Blaine received him cordially, and they talked about the Chilean difficulties for a few minutes.

The Chileans claim that a feeling of hostility among the people in Valparaiso and Santiago is provoked by the action of Minister Egan in giving friendly encouragement to Balmaceda and in the support he gave to the junta by the United States. A special reason for his toward the Baltimore is alleged in that when the congressional fleet made a sudden move in conjunction with the land forces to accomplish the deposition of Valparaiso, the commanding officer of the vessel reported the movement to Mr. Egan, who at once informed Balmaceda, thereby endangering the success of the operations and costing many lives. It is not known whether or not the Chileans made any statement to Mr. Blaine, but it is among the allegations coming from the junta legislation. The expressions coming from this legislation are extremely hostile to the United States.

Trimming the Shade Trees.

To the Editor of The Evening Star.
I agree fully with your correspondent K. as to there being too many trees and their being too close together and not properly trimmed. Where there is as much moisture as we have in this climate it is not well to have our dwellings too much shaded, as it tends to keep them damp and is productive of rheumatism and similar troubles. There is nothing more beneficial than sunshine in every house should have the sun shine through it at times. Wall as on its walls. Two dense shade borders is impossible to grow roses and other flowers in the doorways, and even the grass will not grow under large spreading trees. I had a fine rose garden in 1870, but in 1870 removed from the parking lot of my house, where she lives have grown up for the reasons above stated, and we find it a great improvement. The trees ought to be trimmed up by removing more of the lower limbs. As the top grows and the lower limbs are cut off, the tree becomes dwarfish or stunted and bushy and prevent the free circulation of the air and shut out the view of the houses from the streets. Many of them are so low that they are hit by the sun's rays, and the shade is not good. Men add trees more than I have, but judgment must be used in reference to them as well as in other matters.
